Thank you for your interest, I can't wait to work with you!

Hi, I'm Lacie!

I'm a wife, a mother, and a craft & food lover.

When I'm not working on my blog, you can usually find me volunteering at my kiddo's school or hanging with family and friends.

In my everyday life, I strive to make things as easy as possible and on a budget. My goal is to inspire others by letting them know, if I can do this...you can do this!
